By David Cheetham. Summary This book examines the transcendental dimension of Kant's philosophy as a positive resource for theology. The Shorter Routledge Encyclopedia of Philosophy.

When his philosophy was conceived of as a two-realms system of theory and practice. How can one be commanded to act ethically when it requires a holistic view of the human place within history? Jacobs joined me in this work back when one project was turning into two. God, understood in this way, is the symbol through which we experience the whole without capturing it or discovering its mysteries.

In fact, he shows that there are many places in the first Critique and elsewhere where concrete is lost in the process. Continental Idealism.
