He passes every test they give him though until they ask him to summon silver. We root for her -- and the author brings her through a variety of tribulations without violating her innocence.

This book is actually better than the first story, which I enjoyed, but wasn't. Thus accoutred he marched up with speed to the enemy's ranks, as if he was of their party, and approaching the very place where Rudaucus and Staterius were, commanded his men to fall upon. Like Like. Eragon is unable to answer any questions. Thousands of people die.
