Interviewing a host of participants and with full cooperation of the band's gentlemen, he has written a detailed, well-researched, sympathetic and well-reasoned account. Janis Joplin has passed into the realm of legend: an outwardly brash yet inwardly vulnerable and troubled personality who possessed one of the most passionate voices in rock history.

Shewasveryupset. The film incorporates a series of letters Joplin wrote home, filling in what we know about the years before her early death. Just great, insightful information about the major players in this bands history is offered up. I really became immersed in your book.
