The essential features of an organism are most simply illustrated by the human body. Antiphon A more critical theory of Law was advanced by the Sophist Antiphon, who lived in the latter part of the fifth century B. My selection of the theories for discussion has therefore been determined by the conclusions which I have reached about the nature of those issues and the theories which define them most effectively. Thus we complete the dialogue without discovering what knowledge is. Themer The Republic. Book 4. Seller Inventory LHB In modern terms, the theory is that a minority of men are capable of sound judgment about what is right and what is wrong and should therefore be given complete control over policy. Plotinus-Arg Philosophers.
