In Genesis the Lord told Abraham his descendants would be strangers and servants in a foreign land for years, and then they would be led. Immediately, the Lord began to speak to me. How could God want him to take a message of mercy to such people?

Furthermore, the Bible has records of prophets receiving visions and revelations. Pagan Arabia never produced nobler figures than. Just a pity that as prophets we are weighing and criticise one another instead of praying and supporting each other and realise that the gifts of the prophetic is so broad.
