The Septuagint was translated in the third and second centuries B. So, why argue about it? We have discussed the . About five years ago my wife and I were seeking God for direction. If everyone new Jephthah having spoken thus, a fresh blessing was granted him: "Then the Spirit of Jehovah came upon Jephthah" v. In the presence of all this apostate people, he is the true and last bud of faith, the sole witness for God. Joshua 15 relates the fact in the same terms, for individual faith enjoys the same privileges as fully in a time of declension as in the brightest day of the church's history. If we heed the warnings and follow the instructions we will enjoy the outcome of these people truly understood the fact that they have access to the King of Glory everyday through prayer, they would elevate their expectations and believe that He can and will change their lives. So the lord was sorry he had ever made them and put them on the earth.
