Whew, that was a lot of comments to scan through! As to the occasions on which both species are now to be available, the norms leave that determination up to local bishops and, in the absence of any general diocesan guidelines, to the pastor of a parish. Holy Orders - in the church there are three degrees of sacramental orders: bishop, priest, and deacon.

Finally someone has spoken up about one of my pet peeves observed in my past thr... It is filled to near-capacity. During a World Meeting, families come together to share experiences, to dialogue, to pray and work together to grow as individuals and as family units. That category is no longer included in the current code, published in What's the big deal here? Often, the family also has input as to what musical pieces will be played and sung.
