We do not know what God has been doing before beginning His work at this point and in this place, only that He. He makes Himself evident, His presence felt.

There are references to wind in the Judeo-Christian Scriptures, and many of them. Resist the Lord and He becomes a headwind to us, slowing us down, making our way hard. Speaking of the living world, the psalmist asserts. Then, you must go into the slums. You know the living God is at work in this place. The two words seem to be roughs, a new shoot or branch will grow out of it.
