He called me once, and said to me: "You are of such subtle perception in all matters touching religion, that I am afraid to talk to you, and for that reason I have called in these friars here, for I wish to ask you a question.

Disclaimer:contentonthiswebsiteisforinformationalpurposes.Hisgran it was pretty enjoyable to me because it is one of those books that opens a window in time and gives a great sense of the culture, beliefs, practices, and traditions of a very specific time period and a very specific cultural point of view. On Christmas Day, I and my knights were dining with Lord Peter of Avalon, and whilst we were at table, they came spurring right up to the camp, and killed several poor people, who had gone afoot into the fields.
