I was treated like a drug-seeker, disbelieved, and humiliated. The secondary outcomes improving patient experiences after surgery and health utilisation are hugely clinically relevant, especially in relation to the financial challenges of National Health Service NHS in the UK.

Kindness produces serotonin which generates that feeling of calmness and evenness. Living a long life and suffering cruelty in old age is the terrible fate that waits for many of us. It is also known that feelings associated with empathy and compassion produce oxytocin.

Seeing this result repeat itself time and time again, he became fascinated by it. If you ask that you report content that you in good faith believe violates the above rules by clicking the Flag link next to the offending comment or by filling out this form.
