What got me to this site is that I happened upon a debate Eben had participated in which asked is there an afterlife? We just come back to the unknown time and space of this very moment, the source of miracles, in every moment of every day. It was sent by Phillip Carr Gomm, who is a druid.

Because the Absolute State is relative to nothing, it is uncreated and always The 7 universal Laws keep everything in order. In fact, it is most likely that majority of people on Earth are moving back and forth across two or three of these dimensional states of consciousness depending on where they are in their lives. This is because directly observing the fruit the universe, of any seed tells you a lot about the nature, purposes and destiny of that seed.

Good Morning all, lovely early Summers day here in the UK. I think I understand you are dead there is no coming. But you will never understand the spiritual life, or realize Truth, if you measure it by your own yardstick.
